Day 3

Morning

Breakfast, then transfer to Battery Park at the southern tip of Manhattan. Board for Liberty Island, home to the famous Statue of Liberty (no access to the crown). Continue to Ellis Island, which houses the Immigration Museum. The many arduous steps of this journey are presented through moving testimonies. Typical lunch in Chinatown.

Afternoon

Walk across the famous Brooklyn Bridge, then explore the cobbled streets of trendy DUMBO, located beneath the Brooklyn and Manhattan bridges. Stroll through Brooklyn Bridge Park along the East River, with superb views of the Manhattan skyline. After visiting Brooklyn Heights, famous for its brownstones (dark brick townhouses), return to the hotel by subway.

Day 4

Morning

Guided visit of Harlem. Nestled between Central Park to the south and the Upper East Side to the north, and separated from the Bronx by the Harlem River, it is one of our favorite areas. You'll admire St. John the Divine Cathedral, Columbia University, and stroll along 125th Street, Harlem's main artery, home to the famous Apollo Theater (which hosted the greatest artists). You will attend a Gospel service, followed by a brunch lunch.

Afternoon

Walk through the vast Central Park before returning to the hotel. The rest of the afternoon is free—perfect for shopping or visiting a museum such as the MET or the MoMA. Or climb to the top of Rockefeller Center or the Empire State Building to enjoy outstanding panoramic views.

Dinner and evening at leisure. Overnight in Manhattan.

Day 5

Morning

Guided walk in Manhattan towards the United Nations Headquarters on the banks of the East River. Visit of the building (children under 5 not allowed), including the General Assembly Hall. Note: if the visit is not possible due to a summit (etc.), it will be replaced by a visit to the MoMA, the Museum of Modern Art. Lunch with the famous New York sandwich.

Head to Grand Central Terminal, the largest train station in the world. The main concourse is magnificent, with its incredible green vaulted ceiling dotted with gold leaf, and its four-faced golden clock...
